Bread So Crisp and Tempting That an Unhungry Man Will Want to Eat It!

Isn't bread-making really the most useful of the arts? Does any other art link itself so intimately with the life of the races?

Really, the baker who does his work so well that he educates people into eating more bread, is as useful a member of the human family as is the most distinguished physician. For the bread maker conserves and assists physical and mental health and vigor.

We try to bake bread here that does these things—and that is so good to eat that an hungry person will like it!

MEXICO AGAIN IN GOOD CONDITION

General Manager Clark, of Mexican National, Takes Optimistic View.

Mexico is rapidly recovering from the slight setback it suffered as a result of the revolution and the outlook is bright. This is the opinion of A. Clark, general manager of the Mexican National Railways who is in El Paso in his private car.

Discussing conditions, Mr. Clark said: "Business on the railways is on the increase. It is slow but steady and relates not only to the mining business, but to all other industries."

Regarding damages sustained by the railways during the revolution he said: "It will not total over $1,000,000. Our claims have been presented to the Mexican government and we expect action to be taken upon them in due course, but do not know how soon that will be."

"We do not contemplate any improvements at the present time, but all of our equipment is in use and our roads in good condition. I am here merely on a business trip looking over the Chihuahua division and will remain here but a day or two."

"I do not see anything but brightness for the future in Mexico and everything is going along smoothly."

When asked if the anti-American sentiment evidenced by railroad men some time ago would result in a strike or have any bad effect on the business in Mexico he said: "We have no strike and anticipate none. Every country has experienced a siege such as Mexico has in this regard. You remember we once had a Know Nothing party in the United States and you know what became of it. Such will be the fate of any like demonstration in Mexico and any other country."

"All we have to do is to let these people alone and they will work out their own salvation. That is all they want and they are progressing steadily. Every one is contented and satisfied and while there have been some troubles at different points they have amounted to little and there is no chance of a setback."

GIRL IS ROBBED COMING TO EL PASO

Loses $75 on Train and Will Go to Work Instead of School.

Seventy-five dollars is a big sum for a young girl to lose and then smile about but that is what Miss Ida B. Godley, a young woman from Wilcox, Ariz., did. Declining to give her name because she did not want any publicity, she told at the union station Tuesday afternoon of losing this amount. She slept in a chair car bound on her way to El Paso, a berth coming from Wilcox and she thinks that some one took her purse from her hand while she was asleep.

Miss Godley had come all the way to El Paso to attend a business college in El Paso but now she will go to work. Discussing the affair she said: "I would rather go to work and earn that much more than have my folks know of it. After a while I can earn it and then I will not miss it. I am sure the man who got it did not come to El Paso and I am positive that I will never get it back."

WINNING WANTS

The Explicit Want Ads are the ones that bring the most replies—they are the ones that are read with the greatest degree of satisfaction.

When you write a Want, tell all the important facts. If you are advertising for help, tell just what is to be expected of the applicants. As a matter of fairness, those who seek employment should know all the principal facts regarding a position, so that only those who are capable of filling such a place will be expected to apply.

In locating a position through the Want Columns, state your qualifications plainly and concisely, tell of your experience and enumerate enough of the facts, so that those who are seeking workers will have full enough information, if they are interested, to communicate with you.

The explicit Wants tell clearly, concisely, in a minimum number of words, just the thought that is to be expressed.
